

The Acorn Song

An acorn is not a tree in a day
There's some growin' it along the way
And healthy thinking comes step by step.

A baby is not a man in a week
It's worth waiting for what I seek
And healthy thinking comes step by step.

I will trust God,
Because His timing's never late
I will obey,
And I will serve Him while I wait
The grace of God,
It is sufficient grace for me
Because His power is made perfect in weakness!

An acorn is not a tree in a day
There's some growin' it along the way
And healthy thinking comes step by step!
